The Great Zoo Adventure

I live in a big city. We have a wonderful zoo filled with all kinds of animals. On a sunny morning, two weeks ago, something strange happened. A little monkey named Max found a hidden hole going under the wall. He decided to make it bigger and go out into the big world outside the zoo.

Max hopped from one branch to another, enjoying the big city. He swung from tall buildings and chatted with pigeons. But when the sun started to go down, Max began to feel homesick. He missed his home and his zookeeper friend, Sam.

Back at the zoo, the zookeeper saw that Max was missing. He made a search party with many people from the town and put up posters around the city to find the little monkey.

The next day, a girl named Lily saw one of the posters. She remembered that she saw Max near her school playground, and she went with her parents to tell the zookeeper. The zookeeper followed Lily and soon found Max sitting on a bench, looking sad and lost. When the zookeeper found Max, he was happy and he also thanked Lily for her help. He put Max into his car and took him safely back to the zoo. From that day on, Max never tried to escape again. He said that even though the world outside was great, his home was with his friends at the zoo.

Where is Emily?

One sunny afternoon, Emily visited her uncle Tom's house, which was on a hill near Oakville. Uncle Tom was working in the garage, making something special, but he told Emily it was a secret. When he left to answer the phone, he told her not to touch the old watch on his worktable. Suddenly, the watch began to shake. Emily saw the watch shaking and put her hand on it to stop it. Then, a bright light filled the garage, and when it stopped, Emily was not in the garage but in a thick forest with tall trees.

She was back in the time of the dinosaurs. Emily got scared when she saw a huge dinosaur coming near her. She was lost and really wanted to go back home. She started running through the forest, meeting dinosaurs everywhere. After many days, she met Kia, a wise old woman who knew all about time travel. She also had a pet dinosaur that was very friendly. She taught Emily how to use the watch to travel in time but told her she must learn more before going back.

One day, Emily was ready to go home, and she wanted to see her family in Oakville. She said goodbye to Kia, she put the watch in her hands and a bright light filled the forest. But something strange happened. When the light stopped, she was on a strange street. 'Where am I,' she asked a woman. The woman told her she was in Oakville, and the year was 1788! Emily checked the watch and saw that it said, 'Low Battery.' She looked everywhere for batteries, but no one knew what they were.

- 31 Why did Emily touch the watch?
- A) She wanted to see it
 - B) It was moving
 - C) She wanted to travel
- 32 When Emily got to the forest, what year was it?

My Special Favourite Thing

Your friend lives in Iceland and she wants to know about the thing you love the most!

But here is the fun part. You cannot say what it is! You must describe it in your message.

Look at the six pictures and choose the one that is your favourite. Then, in your message, describe it to your friend. Tell her what it looks like and say why it is your favourite.

Do not forget to ask your friend to guess what it is! Tell her to send you a message with her guess.

It will be so much fun to see if she can guess what it is.
